Hello All

SUNDAY CLUB

After a very successful Sunday Club last month we are holding the next Sunday Club on 3rd November.

To enhance your enjoyment of Sunday Club, we plan to have the programmes, newspaper articles and photographs which were on display at A Night of 100 Years, together with the slides which were projected. So, if you were not able to join us last Saturday, please do come along and if you did see the display, you will be able to have a more detailed look.

Sunday Club is held in the bar at the theatre on the first Sunday of every month from noon until 2.00pm, when the bar is open and nibbles are served. If you are new to the theatre, why not come along to find out more about what happens there, or if you are an 'old hand', come to meet friends or network. We all work very hard, so this is a chance to relax and enjoy somewhere that means so much, to so many. Do come and join us, even if it is only for a quick hello, we would love to see you!

Prior to Sunday Club we have our quarterly envelope stuffing session, so please could all 'stuffers' be there at 10.00am or if you have flyers to insert at 9.45am so we can get everything done as quickly as possible. Please remember that if you do not turn up on time to help, your leaflets won't go in the envelopes! Any help much appreciated!

Our next events will be Oxtd Musical Theatre Company with The Addams Family on 12th to 16th November, The New Aquarian Opera Company with La Boheme on 21st to 23rd November, Flash - A Tribute to Queen on 29th November and Oxtd Comedy with Angelos Epithemiou on 30th November

Oxted Musical Theatre Company present The Addams Family, a comical feast that embraces the wackiness in every family, featuring an original story and it's every father's nightmare! In the kooky, upside-down world of the Addams Family, to be sad is to be happy, to feel pain is to feel joy, and death and suffering are the stuff of their dreams. OMTC will bring to life your favourite characters of Gomez, Morticia, Wednesday, Fester and Lurch. What could be a better Halloween treat this year for your family?

Performances are 12th to 16th November at 7.45pm with a 2.30pm matinee on Saturday 16th and tickets priced at £18.00 are available from www.barntheatreoxted.co.uk

Based on scenes from Henri Murger's novel "Scenes de la vie de Bohème", Puccini's La Bohème is one of the most popular operas ever written. Set in Paris, it tells the unforgettable story of two young, bohemian lovers. On a cold Christmas Eve, Mimi knocks on her neighbour Rodolfo's door, asking him to light her candle, and a love is sparked that changes their lives forever. But faced with the cruel realities of poverty and ill health, will the flame that burns so brightly between them flicker and die, or will their love endure? Puccini's tale is told through the most gloriously moving music, it captures both the overwhelming rush of love at first sight and the total devastation of loss. Sung in English using Amanda Holden's translation with The New Aquarian Opera's chamber orchestra, La Bohème is perfect for both the first time opera-goer and for the more experienced opera enthusiast!

Tickets for the performance which is from Thursday 21st to Saturday 23rd November at 7.30pm cost £25.00 and are available from www.barntheatreoxted.co.uk
